

God Calls Abram

The Lord said to Abram, "Leave your country, your people and your father's household and go the land I will show you."

Genesis 12:1

Are you crazy? Those had to be the words, or at least the thoughts, of Sarai over Abram's plans for moving. We all want to know the details in advance. Facing the future without facts is a scary thing. Our imaginations tend to work over time conjuring horrific scenarios of disaster when we are confronting the unknown. But Abram was faithful to God, and Sarai was trusting of Abram. With Abram and Sarai we have both the Father of Faith and the Mother of Trust, what a combination.
