

The Israelites Grumble

In the desert the whole community grumbled against Moses and Aaron. The Israelites said to them, "If only we had died by the Lord's hand in Egypt! There we sat around pots of meat and ate all the food we wanted, but you have brought us out into this desert to starve this entire assembly to death."

Genesis 16:2-3

We all have our critics. I'm sure Moses had his. For some people criticizing and complaining is a way of life. The Bible refers to these type people as grumblers. You know the type, they can find fault with anything and everything. It's usually their way, or no way at all. God detests grumbling. Here are some hints to avoid becoming a grim grumbling grumbler.

Don't offer advice unless asked

Remember, it takes ten compliments to offset one criticism

Look for the good in people and situations

Remove the plank in your own eye before removing the splinter in your neighbor's

Do (and say) unto others as you would them do (and say) unto you
