

Daniel Enters the Lion's Den

So the king gave the order, and they brought Daniel and threw him into the lion's den. The king said to Daniel, "May your God, whom you serve continually, rescue you!"
Daniel 6:16

Jump in, the water is great. Have you heard that statement as you stood shivering on the shore? You want to jump, but a mixture of emotions ranging from excitement to fear keep your feet firmly anchored. Finally, with a rush of adrenaline, you jump. The seconds between dry ground and water seem like an eternity. Daniel must have been experiencing something similar as he stood at the edge of the lions den. He knew he was doing the right thing, but taking the plunge was nothing less than a leap of faith. HOW God was going to deliver him was yet to be seen. That's what walking by faith is all about, going where God leads, taking the plunge into the unknown. Jump in, the water is great.
